About This Game

Love taking things apart? Seeing how things work? Shooting stuff with a shotgun or rocket launcher? This game lets you do so in the ultimate destruction experience!

DISASSEMBLE

Disassembly 3D: Ultimate Stereoscopic Destruction simulates the experience of taking everyday objects apart. Remove screws, bolts, nuts and every single part with your tools and bare hands. All fully interactive with realistic disassembly physics! Weapons mode unlock as you complete levels for more destructive fun!

DESTROY

Shoot a TV with a shotgun, blow up your computer, smash stuff with a hammer, and much more. Every level is a sandbox! Instead of disassembling the object, spawn in weapons and bombs, place and pose mannequins, and stick C4 everywhere and get ready for tons of fun!

EXPERIENCE

Drive cars and a tank, fly a helicopter and fighter jet, experience a plane crash, dive underwater in a submarine, sail and sink with the Titanic, orbit the Earth, ride an elevator, cook food, make coffee, and much more! Experience everything in this game!

Features

- 51 objects ranging from furniture, appliances, electronics, to the super jumbo A380! Modelled in extreme detail, right down to the final screw!
- Realistic physics - touch and drag parts to disassemble, move or drop them!
- Interactive objects - Drive cars and ships, fly planes and helicopters, operate a coffee machine, spin a fidget spinner, and much more!
- Realistic destruction - weapons becomes unlocked once you successfully disassemble an object. Place bombs then blow things up in slow motion 'bullet' time!
- Stereoscopic 3D mode - glasses free! wiggle, parallel eye, cross eye and SBS modes! Compatible with most 3D viewers and 3D TVs!
- High replay value - explore alternate ways to disassemble an object, or just blow it up for the fun of it!
- Ultimate Quality setting with HDR, SSAO, FXAA & Bloom effects! Exclusive to the Steam version!
- Supports all screen resolutions and all orientations! 4K with ultra-high resolution textures!

Way not worth, Some parts are too small to see, some things are just impossible to take apart, and the game costs WAY too much. The game developers know very well that they made a boring and repetitive game, and made it cost 30$ when personally, I think it should be worth around 5$.

For now, this is going to sit in my game list, uninstalled.

Wait for a sale of 75% or more, it is not worth the full price.. Very fun Puzzle Game. Very Challenging and you need a lot of Patience to complete the Space Station.

A+A+A+A+ Great Game.. not worth its price, and also really needs vr support.. This "game" isn't really a game, but more like something to please the curious people out there. The only goal here is to take things apart and maybe get a glimpse of how it works.

Graphics are decent, but not that good. Reflections seems premade, and when I take stuff away, it still shows the part I took off in the reflection.

Sound? Well, what do you expect?

Controls aren't nearly good enough. Often I end up looking another direction from what I was looking if I accidentally click the wrong part. Confusing and annoying.

Would I recommend this at the current price (25-30 $)? No way! Its an okay "game" if you get it for say 4-5 $, but don't waste your money on this unless the price is off by 75%.. Would be good if workshop was added. i only played it once and it keeps instantly kicking me out of the game!

PLEASE FIX THIS!!!!. Cool game, not worth £23, get it on sale.

Only recommend buying if on sale. At First It Was Way Too Expensive But When I Got It I Realised It Was Definitely Worth It.. This is fun for the most part but beware, the game is buggy. I don't know if it's my particular machine or windows setup but I had graphical bugs when playing this game and several items could not be fully disassembled. I couldn't finish the PC or the plane due to parts not unlocking at random and some parts where more then one part connect wouldn't separate thus ruining my experience.

I do recommend this game if you like taking things apart, but I don't like that it is buggy so be warned if you do decide to purchase it. Overall I have positive feelings to this game despite the bugs I have encountered.. Dont get me wrong, this game is fun, and i really like it.

Would i recommend it tho ?

No.

Not for this price.

It just dont think its worth this much money. The Game often glitches out, the controls are weird, the screen doesnt adjust on startup, sometimes you dont get the weapons after completing a level, the graphics are okay but could get improvement (i know its possible with the Engine its using [Unity], so i'm sure the developer will be up to the task.)

But what my biggest issue is how boring the game often gets , just searching for parts all the time...

How to fix this ?

1. Improve the physics and realism a bit. The physics would be okay for a normal game but not for a game thats based around physics. And fluids are a total mess.
2. Make the game (especially the enviroment) a bit more pleasing to look at. Add props, detail and better lightning and fix texture glitches.
3. MAKE THE WEAPONS available FROM THE BEGINING OF A LEVEL, PLEASE ! This feels like a mobile game where there will pop up a windows that says "Unlock all weapons now for only [Price here]" any moment. What ypu could do to balance this is that you only get a tick and level completion when you disassemble it correctly.
4. Add little gadgets and secrets.
5. Add good music please. Start menu can stay (thats a meme by now), but add nice background music.

So, to fix the price i have this suggestion :

Make the Game cheap (not more then 10$ or \u20ac) BUT only giev a few item packs and add the others as DLC, but keep the price at a point where when you buy all of them it reassembles the price you pay now (maybe a bit more but not too much) and give the people that own it now all of them for free.

So yeah, this was my review of the game.

Please leave comments and feedback down below; And dear game developer if you see this, please leave me a reply down below.

Thanks.

Alright, first, if you dont wanna read this review. the answer is: Yes. buy this game, however only if you have the patience to go through an entire dissassembled item to find those last few parts.

alright, now for the actual review

Pros:

- The disassembly is very relaxing
- The destruction is absolutely worth the long process of taking the thing apart, especially with the big builds, like the skyscraper or elevator
- The disassembly is fairly realistic, if not for some minor details
- New updates are constantly coming out for this game, adding new content and fixing bugs

Cons:

- After disassembling most of an item, you are usually left with a few parts left and then have to look all over to find those last missing pieces
- The hint mechanism only appears after some random amount of time not being able to find a piece, i wish there was just a button alwways there when you are at or under ~5 pieces
- With the bigger builds, a large amount of detail is lost, i know this is for performance reasons, but still
- Camera takes a bit of getting used to, i'd day 3~ hours to fully master it.
- Physics can some times wig out causing the entire thing to dissapear or throw random pieces all over the place, this is especially infuriation when you are trying to keep things organised to avoid the "Last piece" shenanigans

Now, i know from the pros and cons it sounds like a bad game, but the pros far outweigh the many cons. anyways, TL;DR

This game good.

Sorry for bad engilsh/grammar, its late at night and im tired i dont know why im typing this.. I Saw This On Jacksepticeye's Channel Thinking It Would Be Fun But It Takes So Long To Install And The Game Is Boring So, Nah.... gud gem, just gey when try to start up gеме, while i live in the world of 2/28/18.. It's definetely not worth the of amount money it costs, it takes way too of short an amount of time to finish and the cost of 30$ is way too much for barely anything to disassemble, plus its seriously unrealstic! If I could get a refund I most definetely would.. This is a very fun game if you like destruction!Very fun I just hope they will add more levels!!
